

International Symposium on Islam in Southeast Asia : Transnational Networks and Local Contexts

Date: December 5th, 2008

Venue: Room 302, ILCAA, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

3-11-1 Asahi-cho, Fuchu-city, Tokyo, Japan

Map: <http://www.tufs.ac.jp/info/map-and-contact.html> (Japanese)

<http://www.tufs.ac.jp/info/map-and-contact-e.html> (English)

Program of the Symposium

9:30-9:40 Opening Remarks by Kazuo Ohtsuka (ILCAA, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies)

9:40-9:50 Opening Remarks by Ikuya Tokoro (ILCAA, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies)

Session 1: Islam and Society in Indonesia and Malaysia

Chairperson: Toru Aoyama (Tokyo University of Foreign Studies)

9:50-10:30 Jamhari Makruf (Universitas Islam Negeri)

Islamic Schools and Trans-Radicalism in Indonesia.

10:30-11:10 Muhamad Hisyam (Center for Social and Cultural Studies, LIPI)

Preparatory Commission for Implementing the Shari'a: An Islamic Resurgence in South Sulawesi.

11:10-11:50 Azizah Kassim (Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia)

Conversion to Islam and Inter-faith Marriages Involving Muslims in Contemporary Malaysia: An Exploratory Study.

11:50-12:20 Discussion

Commentator: Ken Miichi (Iwate Prefectural University)

Naoki Soda (Tokyo University of Foreign Studies)

12:20-13:30 Lunch Time

Session 2: Islam and Peace Building in the Philippines

Chairperson: Ikuya Tokoro (ILCAA, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies)

13:30-14:10 Datu Michael Masutura (Sultan Kudarat Islamic Academy)

Government-Moro Conflict: Is 'earned Sovereignty Negotiable in Islam?

14:10-14:50 Abubakar Asiri (University of the Philippines)

Persistent Themes in the History of Sulu Moros.

14:50-15:20 Discussion

Commentator: Nobutaka Suzuki (University of Tsukuba)

15:20-15:30 Tea Break

