

JOB OPENINGS

Research Center for Humanities and Social Sciences

Academia Sinica

Taipei, Taiwan

The Research Center for Humanities and Social Sciences at the Academia Sinica invites applications for tenure-track positions. The specialties required by its thematic centers are as follows.

1. Researchers (including assistant research fellow, associate research fellow and research fellow, equivalent respectively to assistant professor, associate professor and professor in universities).

⊙ Center for Political Thought

Western political thought and political philosophy and the related fields

⊙ Center for Maritime History

Historical studies on (1) fishery and fishing, (2) ships and shipping, (3) maritime trade and immigration, (4) navy, port control, and coastal defense, (5) piracy and smuggling

⊙ Center for Institution and Behavior Studies

Industrial Organizations, Micro-economics and the related fields

⊙ Center for Survey Research

Applicants must have specialized training in sociology, political science, economics, public health, education, or related fields and demonstrate the ability to conduct research related to survey methods.

⊙ Center for Asia-Pacific Area Studies

(1) Asia-Pacific history (2) Languages, religions, ethnic groups and indigenous cultures in the Asia-Pacific region (3) Post-colonial political, economic and social transformation in the Asia-Pacific region (4) Interaction of ethnic Chinese and local societies in the Asia-Pacific region.

⊙ Center for Geographic Information Science

Specialized training in GIS and two years' collaborative research related to the humanities and social sciences

2. Research Technician in the Center for Survey Research
Specialized training in sociology, political science, economics, public health, education, or related fields and ability to develop techniques related to survey or data archiving.

Qualifications for researchers

1. Currently holding a teaching position in a university or an academic position in a research institution and is at or above the rank of assistant professor.
2. Holding a Degree of Ph. D. or expected to pass final examination or oral defense by June 30 of 2009.
3. Ability to communicate fluently in both oral and written Mandarin Chinese.

Qualifications for research technician in the Center for Survey Research

1. Holding a degree of M.A. or Ph. D. in sociology, political science, economics, public health, education, or related fields and having at least two (for Ph. D.) to four years (for M. A.) of experience in survey research related work.
2. Ability to communicate fluently in both oral and written Mandarin Chinese.

Interested applicants should send the following items by March 31, 2009.

1. Curriculum vitae (in both English and Chinese). Applicants should indicate the center, the type and the rank of the position applied for. Those applying for positions in the Center for Survey Research, should provide detailed description of experiences and publications related to survey research.
2. Statement of research plan (no more than five pages)
3. Copy of the highest degree diploma (or other proof)
4. Three copies of publications or research (or working) papers (dissertation is required if degree was awarded after January of 2004)
5. Graduate school transcripts or description of courses taken in graduate school (optional if degree was awarded before January of 2004)
6. Three letters of reference (mailed directly by referees).

Contact and Inquiry

Dr. Ying-Hwa Chang

Director

Research Center for Humanities and Social Sciences

Academia Sinica

128, Academia Road, Sec. 2

Nankang, Taipei, Taiwan 115

Telephone: 886-2-27898111

Fax: 886-2-27821824

Email: rchssjob@gate.sinica.edu.tw

Website: Research Center for Humanities and Social Sciences